Kosovo profile acknowledgement: Mentor Sahiti (LFW Workshop participant, 2015)

Participants at the Language for Work Workshop held at the ECML in Graz on 24-25 June 2015 were asked to prepare a brief review of policies and practice in their own country/region relevant to work-related language learning for migrant/ethnic minority workers and/or low-literate majority-language speaking workers. Reviews were completed for Cyprus, Denmark, Finland, France, Germany, Iceland, Italy (Emilia-Romagna), Kosovo, Macedonia, Malta, Norway, Romania (Bucharest), Sweden.

¹ DVV International is the Institute for International Cooperation of the German Adult Education Association (Deutscher Volkshochschul-Verband e.V), which is the federal umbrella association for the 16 Länder associations of Germany's community adult education centres (Volkshochschulen, VHS). DVV and its Institute represent the interests of adult education at the national, European, and international level.

DVV International is active worldwide, cooperating with more than 200 partners in over 35 countries. The Institute sees itself as a professional partner that brings experience and resources to joint projects and learns, in turn, from its partners. The work of DVV International is financed mainly with funds from the federal budget and other donors. DVV International

- fosters the exchange of information and expertise on adult education and development throughout Europe and worldwide
- provides support for the establishment and development of youth and adult education structures in developing countries and countries in transition
- provides in-service training, advice and media for global and intercultural education and for learning about European policies
